

VISITING SEMINAR

FREE AND OPEN INDO-PACIFIC

LA SOLUZIONE GIAPPONESE ALLE DINAMICHE DI COMPETIZIONE REGIONALE E L'INVITO ALL'UNIONE EUROPEA

GIANLUCA BONANNO

VISITING SCIENTIST

Kyoto University

25 maggio 2022
h 15.00 - 18.00

Sala lauree rossa piccola
Campus Einaudi
Live su webex

Discussants

Giuseppe Gabusi Università degli Studi di Torino

Sonia Favi Università degli Studi di Torino

Oliviero Frattolillo Università degli Studi Roma Tre

Gianluca Bonanno is the president of the International Peace and Sustainability Organization (IPSO), while also serving as associate professor and head of research for its think-tank. He's a research fellow at the Torino World Affairs Institute (T.wai) and an adjunct professor at Kyoto University. His other commitments include consultant positions at the Mekong River Commission Secretariat, the Asian Development Bank, the International Criminal Police Organisation, Rotary International, as well as periodic academic and consultant positions at various institutions in Asia, Europe and Northern America. His main research interests are in trans-boundary issues in the Greater Mekong Sub-region; international relations in the Indo-Pacific; and the political economy of Japan in Asia.