

SEMINARI di DIPARTIMENT

MARTEDÌ 23 MAGGIO 2017 ORE 16.00
TORINO, CAMPUS LUIGI EINAUDI, AULA 3D440

Nicholas Farrelly
Australian National University

ROUTLEDGE HANDBOOK OF CONTEMPORARY MYANMAR

Discutono con l'autore
Giuseppe Gabusi, Stefano Ruzza

Few countries in the world have experienced the extraordinary path taken by Myanmar over the past few years. After five decades of military rule, national elections in 2010 reinstated legislative influence and ushered in an era of political and economic reforms that are having far reaching impacts. The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Myanmar provides a comprehensive and up-to-date resource on the political, economic and social issues to confront Myanmar. It is divided into 7 parts:

- Fundamentals
- Spaces
- Cultures
- Living
- Governance
- International
- Challenges

In this seminar, Dr Nicholas Farrelly, one of the editors of this volume, will talk about the overall picture of political change in Myanmar. He will also focus on his own substantive chapters in this book, which are both about the creation of new spatial logics in Myanmar's capital city, Naypyitaw, and in its anomalous, peripheral zones.

